Particle Dynamics Appoints Kevin Farris as Manager of Business Development

ST. LOUIS, MO -- Particle Dynamics, a contract development and manufacturing organization (CDMO) and global leader in particle processing, delivery technologies and finished dose manufacturing for the nutraceutical, consumer health, OTC, and pharmaceutical sectors, today announced the appointment of Kevin Farris as Manager, Business Development. In this role, Kevin will report to Mark Bolling, Vice President, Sales and Marketing, and be responsible for building the Company's base of new customers and driving sales globally.

"With over two decades of business development, sales, and account management experience across the pharmaceutical, chemical, health and nutrition industries, Kevin has a proven track record of driving sales across new and existing accounts," said Mark Bolling, Vice President, Sales and Marketing at Particle Dynamics. "Following our recent acquisition of EuroAPI's commercial spray drying facility, Particle Dynamics is poised to expand its commercial footprint and processing capacity, and Kevin will play an integral role in our organization's growth across core industry verticals."

Mr. Farris joins Particle Dynamics from Clariant AG North America where he served as Business Development Manager for the company's excipient portfolio of solubilizers, emulsifiers, and surfactants. Prior to Clariant, he was a Key Account Manager, North America, at International Flavors & Fragrances (IFF)'s Pharma Solutions Division. While at IFF, Mr. Farris was responsible for over $25 million in annual sales. He joined IFF after the DuPont Pharma Solutions business was sold by the reorganized DuPont after the Dow and DuPont merger. His tenure at DuPont began when FMC Nutrition & Heath was acquired by the company. Mr. Farris also worked for calcium carbonate manufacturer Omya and excipients manufacturers, DFE Pharma and JRS Pharma. He was also an account manager for J.M. Huber Engineered Materials. He began his career as a Manufacturer's Representative for Paladin Marketing Group, growing business for multiple companies in dietary supplement actives, specialty ingredients, and fine chemicals.

Mr. Farris holds a Bachelor of General Studies from the University of Michigan.
